VOLUME XIII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 14, 1910.

NUMBER 45

Goes to Philadelphia.

Probably no young man who ever left Columbia has forged to the front faster than James T. Gilmer, a son of Mr. Alfred Gilmer who was a merchant at this place, for many years.

He has gone from Montgomery, Ala., to Philadelphia, Pa. The Journal of Commerce of the latter city has the following to say of him:

An appointment which we consider holds all the essential qualities, is that of Mr. J. T. Gilmer, formerly with Jones Drygoods Company, Kansas City, Mo., for six years, later president of the Knowles Drygoods Company, of Montgomery Ala., receiving the greater part of his business experience in the Middle West. In fact, a stronger and more acceptable selection could not have been made, and the wisdom which suggested the same can not be too highly commended, for Mr. Gilmer is a man thoroughly conversant with every detail of the line of work that has been committed to his charge.

In coming to Philadelphia, Mr. Gilmer is coming to one of the most enterprising and progressive business cities in the country, the success and growth of which firms as Gimbel Brothers and similar concerns, testify to this fact.

We are glad to note that men who have established their ability in the school of experience, and have attained enviable eminence in the business world, are being sought out by Philadelphia corporations, from other cities and induced to come here, thereby adding to our strength as a business community, and to our powers as an industrial center.

In conclusion we wish to accord to Mr. Gilmer a hearty welcome to our city, not only to its business interests, but to its social interests, and to the Quaker spirit, which prevails and pervades among us.

If you want a jersey cow attend the sale in Columbia October 5th.

Public Sale.

On Saturday Sept. 17, 1910, at my Mother's home, two miles from Columbia, at Cheatham bridge, I will sell at public outcry, one combined horse, an excellent milk cow, hogs and sheep, household and kitchen furniture, farming implements, corn, wheat, oats and hay, and also the growing crop of corn. The farm containing 70 acres, well watered and improved, is for sale privately. This farm is in one of the best communities in Adair county and a desirable home. M. Rey Yarbary.

P. S. The farm will be sold on day of sale to the highest and best bidder if not sold privately before that date. M. R. Y.

The last of open air gospel meetings, which have been conducted by the pastor of the Presbyterian church during the summer months, was one of the largest attended and proved to be one of the most interesting of the series. The service was held in the yard of Mr. M. Antle, on Bomar Heights, and the friends of that section attended in large numbers. The experiment of open air services has been so well received that Mr. Crawford promises to repeat them for next summer.

Rev. J. R. Crawford occupied the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday night, delivering a very entertaining and helpful discourse.

Death of a Former Resident.

Citizens of Columbia were surprised and grieved last Tuesday when they read in the Louisville morning papers that Dr. Melvin Rhorer was dead. The end came at his home in Lexington at 4 o'clock Monday morning the 5th inst. For a number of years he was a resident of Columbia and had a large acquaintance and a fine practice throughout the county. His first wife, who was Miss Virginia Weatherford, a daughter of a prominent physician of Louisville, died in this place. Several years after the death of his first wife he was married to Miss Sue Ray, of Edmonton, who, with two sons and one daughter survive him.

The writer knew the deceased well and occasionally received a letter from him, the last one about six months ago, in which the Doctor stated he expected to visit Columbia this summer. He was a very companionable man, one full of life, and he is often quoted here by former associates who were fond of his society.

The deceased was a member of the Maxwell street Presbyterian Church, Lexington, but the funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. R. Kasey, of Louisville, whose wife was a niece of the deceased.

The two sons left are grown, in business, and it is our understanding are doing well. The deceased age was reported at 67 and that pulmonary trouble caused his death.

All that have colts please come and be at the show. Don't forget the premiums.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of our precious baby, Mamie, who was so dear to all. Mrs. Lillian Burton and family.

The reunion of old soldiers at Weed last week was largely attended. There were quite a number of ministers present and the days were spent in religious exercises. Late in the afternoon of Tuesday, after exercises had been completed, Hon. D. C. Edwards spoke to quite a number. There was an abundance of edibles on the ground and the two days were highly enjoyable.

The Odd-Fellows are now in a home of their own. They have rented the apartments over the Citizens Bank, removed the partitions, making a very convenient hall. Since the organization of the lodge the body, through the courtesy and kindness of the Masons, have met in the Masonic Hall.

Rev. D. H. Howerton, of Burnside, preached two very entertaining sermons at the Baptist Church, this city, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week. From expressions heard the Baptists of the community like him very much.

Columbia Lodge, No. 96, F. and A. M., will meet in regular convocation next Friday evening. All Master Masons in good standing are requested to be present. By order of the Master.

Your roof will not rust if painted with Standard Elastic Cement Paint. Sold and guaranteed by Read Hardware Co. 45-2t

Judge J. C. Carter held circuit court at Leitchfield, Grayson county last week. Weed Chief, the regular Judge, was at a health resort.

Mr. Geo. T. Flowers, Jr., will remove to his new residence on Greensburg street in a week or two.

Mrs. L. C. Hurt has sold her stock of millinery to Mrs. Lou W. Atkins. Mrs. Hurt has gone to Louisville to engage in millinery work in that city.

Revival Services at Union Church.

Evangelists Dr. W. B. Holmes, of Tennessee, and Mr. Presley Clark, of Bowling Green, will assist Rev. J. R. Crawford in special meetings at Union Presbyterian church, beginning Friday night Sept. 16.

On, and after, Sunday following there will be dinner on the ground each day. The morning service will begin at 10:30 o'clock and the evening service at 7 o'clock. All Christian people desirous of seeing a wide spread revival are most cordially invited to co-operate in the meetings. It is earnestly desired by the church interested that all the churches surrounding shall receive rich benefits from the meetings.

Watkins Company.

I represent one of the best Companies in the world. I am on the Columbia square every Monday. Call and see my goods and get my prices.

Jno. B. Grant.

There is a moral grandeur in the thought—"I have made myself." The world may wag their heads, and you may be denounced but if you are conscious of that integrity of purpose which has always characterized you, and that you now stand on an eminence, placed there by your own rectitude of heart, you have nothing to fear. You had not the influence of wealth, nor the "God speed you" of powerful friends; but you had more—a heart fixed and determined, and this is what has made you what you are. Go on—add virtue to virtue—look steadily at the goal before you, and at last your best teachers and artful companions will acknowledge your superiority and feel proud of being among the number of your friends. The man who is resolved to be something in the world should have nothing to fear, and when he little dreams of it, honors are gathering about his head and an influence goes out from him, which is exerted silently but surely for the good of thousands.

Next Monday the grand jury will convene. There is evidently much work that should be done, but the great difficulty the jury will experience will be in getting witnesses before it. There are lots of men who claim to be good citizens, who will dodge the grand jury in order to keep from indicting the guilty. That is not an evidence of good citizenship. If a man knows that certain persons are violating the law, he should go before the grand jury and tell it. No county can prosper unless the laws of the country are protected.

Do not forget J. B. Barbee's big sale of jersey cows, October 5th.

Mesdames G. W. Staples and Geo. F. Stults will open a millinery store in the Russell building. They will be in the market this week.

"Uncle" Bob Simmons Dead.

The life work of the subject of this notice ended at Jamestown last Sunday morning. He was eighty years old and one of the best-known men in Russell county. He was born in Adair county and lived here until he was eighteen years old. The remainder of his life was spent in the country where he died. He was a very religious man and had been a preacher in the Christian Church for a quarter of a century or longer. He was a very kind and obliging man and was universally liked throughout Russell county. He was a brother of the late J. B. and W. D. Simmons of Adair county, and also H. C. Simmons, who lives in Missouri.

The Columbia Roller Mill is overstocked with wheat and will not buy more for several weeks.

Public Sale.

I will on Saturday, the 24th day of September, 1910 sell the following property to the highest bidder. The sale to take place at my home one-half mile west of White Oak Church, on the Russell Springs road. Terms made known on day of sale:

4 good work horses; 2 one-year-old mules; 1 thoroughbred Jersey cow; 1 extra good milk cow; 6 head of stock cattle; 15 head of fat hogs; 7 head of stock hogs; 3 good farm wagons; 3 good buggies; 1 good surrey; 1 good mowing machine and rake and farming implements of all kinds; Two hundred barrels of corn; 15,000 lbs. of good hay; 2 good cultivators; 1 good disc harrow; several sets of double and single harness; 2 man saddles, and other things too numerous to mention. Terms of sale made known on day of sale.

44-2t B. O. Hurt.

Students are entering the Lindsey-Wilson daily and the indications point to the largest attendance for several years. The advantages are good and board and tuition cheap. Parents who intend to send their sons and daughters to school should start them now. There is no good sense in paying out three hundred dollars for board and tuition when the same can be secured at the Lindsey-Wilson for $115. Besides Columbia is one of the healthiest towns in Kentucky.

Public Sale.

On Wednesday, the 5th day of October, 1910, I will sell sixty head of fine young jersey cows to the highest bidders. The cows will be fresh in December and January. The sale will take place in the town of Columbia.

44-4t J. B. Barbee.

A dispatch appeared in the Louisville Post last Thursday stating that Grey & Son's store at Marrowbone had been robbed and the building burned. There was no date of the robbery and fire, and we take it that it was a very small affair, and the item may be ancient.

Stop those leaks in your roof with a coat of Standard Elastic Cement Paint. Read Hardware Co. 45-2t

Mr. Andrew W. Eubank will remove from Edmonton to Glasgow. He has purchased an interest in the Terry Hughes Co. store, a firm that has been doing an immense business. Mr. Eubank is a son of the late Ed Eubank, and a nephew of Squire John Eubank, of this place.

New Fall Styles in Mens and boys hat now on sale. Russell & Co.

Rev. D. H. Howerton, who has been located at Burnside for some time, has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church, this place. The call has not been accepted, but an answer is expected in a week or two.

Standard Elastic Cement Paint, "the best metal paint on earth." Read Hardware Co. 45-2t

The Eleventh district primary will be pulled off next Thursday. Both sides are claiming the victory. Between ten and twelve o'clock p. m. we will know how the district has gone unless the vote is remarkably close.

Be in Columbia October 5th and attend J. B. Barbee's sale of jersey cows.

The regular meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 230, I. O. O. F., will be in their hall, over Citizens Bank, next Thursday evening. There will be degree work and every member is urged to be present.

At the sale of James H. Baughman, in Lincoln county, W. N. Griffin, of Gallatin, Tenn., paid $265 for a suckling mule colt, the highest price ever reached in Kentucky.
